TRANSFORMATION

STORIES OF HOW AND WHY WE EVOLVE

2019/2020

SEASON PRODUCTIONS

THE ROOMMATE

By Jen Silverman
Directed by Suzan Fete

October 18 - November 10

Sharon has been respectable her whole life. Now in her mid-fifties and recently divorced, she needs a roommate to share her Iowa home. Robyn, also in her mid-fifties, needs a place to hide and a chance to start over. But as Sharon begins to uncover Robyn's secrets, she realizes her own deep-seated desire to transform her life completely.

A dark comedy about what it takes to reroute your life - and what happens when the wheels come off.

"Silverman's THE ROOMMATE is a tragedy that subtly grows beneath peals of uproarious laughter!"

- Broadway World

HAPPY DAYS

By Samuel Beckett
Directed by Marie Kohler

January 24 - February 16

Winnie's buoyant optimism shields her from the harsh glare of the inevitable in Beckett's unforgettable masterpiece of modern theater.

Often referred to as "the Hamlet for actresses," Winnie is a mountain of a role, both physically and emotionally. A summit part for Milwaukee's virtuosic actor, Laura Gordon.

"HAPPY DAYS remains an absurdly funny and boundlessly compassionate portrait of the human spirit."

- New York Times

ACTUALLY

By Anna Ziegler
Directed by Mary MacDonald Kerr

March 27 - April 19

Tom and Amber are college freshmen at Princeton. They are overwhelmed, overstimulated, under slept, surrounded by strangers, full of tension, uncertainty, and alcohol. What could possibly go wrong?

ACTUALLY, is a smart, profoundly painful exploration of the culture of sexual consent. A perfectly complex tale for our #MeToo Age.

"[ACTUALLY] effectively questions a lot of dangerous lessons that young adults absorb about body image, sex, drinking, consent and responsibility, even in the ranks of higher education."

- The Washington Post

Milwaukee's only professional theater company dedicated to providing roles for women, onstage and off!
