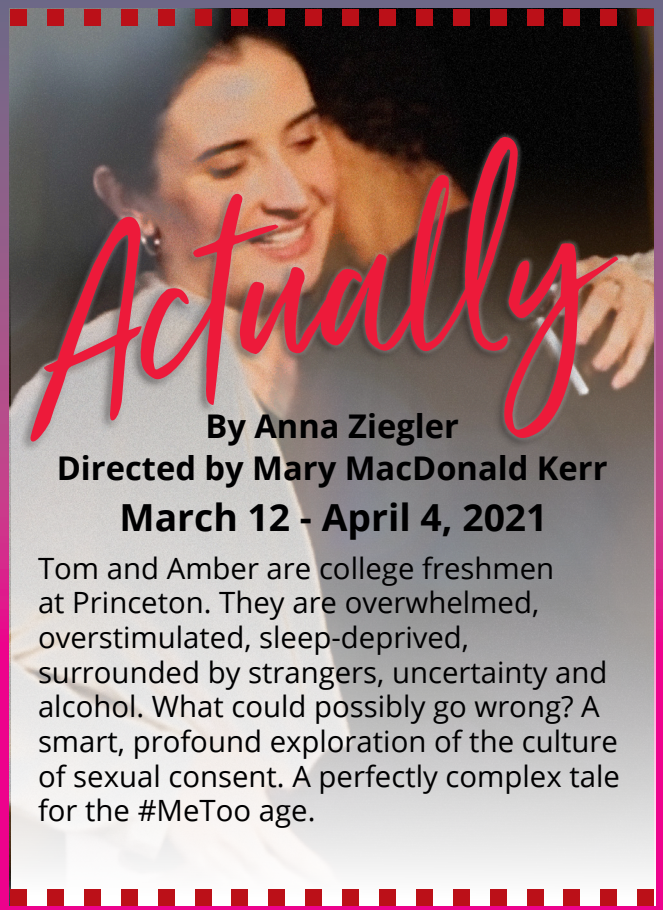
2020-2021 SEASON

WHAT REALLY MATTERS

Muthaland

By Minita Gandhi
Directed by Lavina Jadhwani
January 8 - January 31, 2021

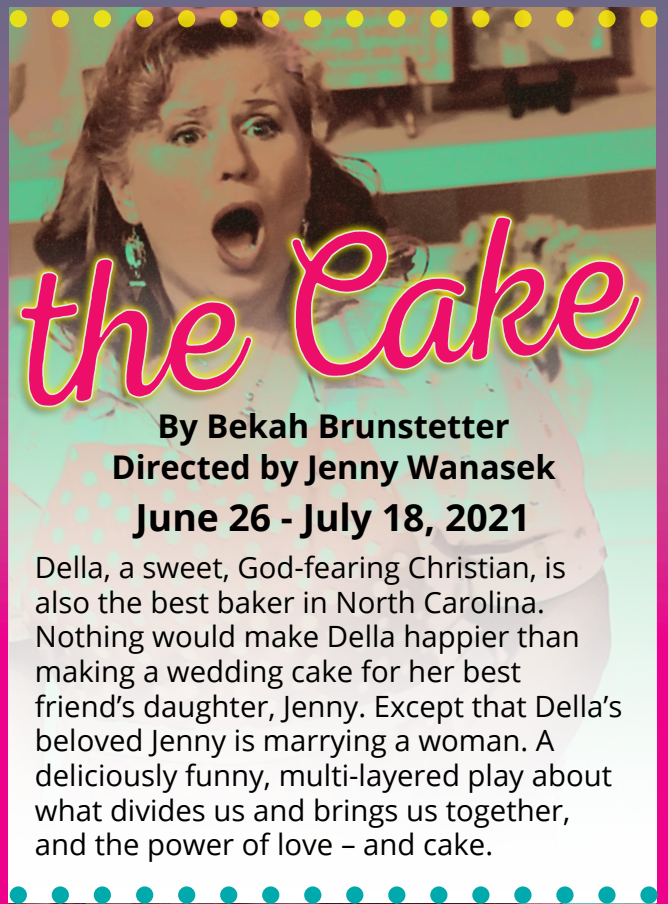
A trip to her homeland forever changes the life of a young Indian-American woman. On her journey, she unearths family secrets, encounters a prophet, and discovers her voice within a culture of silence. A powerful, transformative story based on actual events.



Actually

By Anna Ziegler
Directed by Mary MacDonald Kerr
March 12 - April 4, 2021

Tom and Amber are college freshmen at Princeton. They are overwhelmed, overstimulated, sleep-deprived, surrounded by strangers, uncertainty and alcohol. What could possibly go wrong? A smart, profound exploration of the culture of sexual consent. A perfectly complex tale for the #MeToo age.



the Cake

By Bekah Brunstetter
Directed by Jenny Wanasek
June 26 - July 18, 2021

Della, a sweet, God-fearing Christian, is also the best baker in North Carolina. Nothing would make Della happier than making a wedding cake for her best friend's daughter, Jenny. Except that Della's beloved Jenny is marrying a woman. A deliciously funny, multi-layered play about what divides us and brings us together, and the power of love – and cake.
